According to an incident report from the Yakima County Sheriff's Office, on July 20, 2014, at approximately 3:48 a.m., officers were dispatched to a call in reference to a suspicious person. Upon arriving at the scene, the defendant's vehicle was found in the driveway, with the motor running and the music playing, but there was no one in the vehicle. Contact was made with the female reporting party, who stated she had an affair with the defendant about a year ago and ended the relationship shortly after that. She advised since then, he has been trying to contact her and has been driving past her home. She reported this morning, the defendant parked his vehicle in their driveway and started calling for their dog. Officers could hear dogs barking behind the residence but were unable to locate the defendant. The reporting party advised she intended to file a restraining order against the defendant and mentioned he was carrying a firearm. Since the defendant is an enrolled Yakama Nation member, Tribal police were called and they advised they intended to file charges against the defendant for trespassing and disturbing the peace.
